

We are interested in pricing for 11 survey batteries. In total, there are 408 question items. However, depending on the battery, we are interesting in a different number of respondents and type of sample. For some batteries, we are interested in a small, high quality (nationally representative) sample. For some batteries, we are interested in a large, low quality (convenience) sample. For some batteries, we are interested in both.

For each high quality sample, we are interested in pricing for 1,500 respondents. For each low quality sample, we are interested in pricing for 10,000 respondents. A full breakdown of these pricing requests is below. We have also attached an appendix with exact question wordings.

1 Big Five

1.1 Prompt

Below, there are phrases describing people's behaviors. Please use the rating scale to describe how accurately each statement describes you. Describe yourself as you generally are now, not as you wish to be in the future. Rate yourself as you honestly see yourself, in relation to other people you know of the same sex as you are, and roughly your same age. If you are unsure of which response to choose (e.g. you act one way in a certain situation, and another way in a different situation), choose the response which feels most "natural" to you.

1.2 Response Options

Very Inaccurate, Moderately Inaccurate, Neither Inaccurate nor Accurate, Moderately Accurate, Very Accurate

3 Schwartz Value Survey

3.1 Prompt

In this questionnaire you are to ask yourself: “What values are important to ME as guiding principles in MY life, and what values are less important to me?” There are two lists of values on the following pages. These values come from different cultures. In the parentheses following each value is an explanation that may help you to understand its meaning.

Your task is to rate how important each value is for you as a guiding principle in your life. Use the rating scale below:

3.2 Response Options

0—means the value is not at all important, it is not relevant as a guiding principle for you.

3—means the value is important.

6—means the value is very important.

The higher the number (0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6), the more important the value is as a guiding principle in YOUR life.

-1 is for rating any values opposed to the principles that guide you.

7 is for rating a value of supreme importance as a guiding principle in your life; ordinarily there are no more than two such values.

In the space before each value, write the number (-1,0,1,2,3,4,5,6,7) that indicates the importance of that value for you, personally. Try to distinguish as much as possible between the values by using all the numbers. You will, of course, need to use numbers more than once.

AS A GUIDING PRINCIPLE IN MY LIFE, this value is:

opposed to my values	not impor- tant			important				very impor- tant	of supreme importance
-1	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Before you begin, read the values in List I, choose the one that is most important to you and rate its importance. Next, choose the value that is most opposed to your values and rate it -1. If there is no such value, choose the value least important to you and rate it 0 or 1, according to its importance. Then rate the rest of the values in List I.

(List 1 is items 1-30)

Now rate how important each of the following values is for you as a guiding principle in YOUR life. These values are phrased as ways of acting that may be more or less important for you. Once again, try to distinguish as much as possible between the values by using all the numbers.

Before you begin, read the values in List II, choose the one that is most important to you and rate its importance. Next, choose the value that is most opposed to your values, or—if there is no such value—choose the value least important to you, and rate it -1, 0, or 1, according to its importance. Then rate the rest of the values.

(List 2 is items 31-57)

1. Our country desperately needs a mighty leader who will do what has to be done to destroy the radical new ways and sinfulness that are ruining us.
2. Gays and lesbians are just as healthy and moral as anybody else.
3. It is always better to trust the judgment of the proper authorities in government and religion than to listen to the noisy rabble-rousers in our society who are trying to create doubt in people's minds.
4. Atheists and others who have rebelled against the established religions are no doubt every bit as good and virtuous as those who attend church regularly.
5. The only way our country can get through the crisis ahead is to get back to our traditional values, put some tough leaders in power, and silence the troublemakers spreading bad ideas.
6. There is absolutely nothing wrong with nudist camps.
7. Our country needs free thinkers who have the courage to defy traditional ways, even if this upsets many people.
8. Our country will be destroyed someday if we do not smash the perversions eating away at our moral fiber and traditional beliefs.
9. Everyone should have their own lifestyle, religious beliefs, and sexual preferences, even if it makes them different from everyone else.
10. The "old-fashioned ways" and the "old-fashioned values" still show the best way to live.
11. You have to admire those who challenged the law and the majority's view by protesting for women's abortion rights, for animal rights, or to abolish school prayer.
12. What our country really needs is a strong, determined leader who will crush evil, and take us back to our true path.
13. Some of the best people in our country are those who are challenging our government, criticizing religion, and ignoring the "normal way things are supposed to be done."
14. God's laws about abortion, pornography and marriage must be strictly followed before it is too late, and those who break them must be strongly punished.
15. There are many radical, immoral people in our country today, who are trying to ruin it for their own godless purposes, whom the authorities should put out of action.
16. A "womans place" should be wherever she wants to be. The days when women are submissive to their husbands and social conventions belong strictly in the past.
17. Our country will be great if we honor the ways of our forefathers, do what the authorities tell us to do, and get rid of the "rotten apples" who are ruining everything.
18. There is no "ONE right way" to live life; everybody has to create their own way.
19. Homosexuals and feminists should be praised for being brave enough to defy "traditional family values."

20. This country would work a lot better if certain groups of troublemakers would just shut up and accept their group's traditional place in society.
